SECTION – A(Unseen Comprehension)

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

Lincoln once played a practical joke upon a rich client of his. This man wanted Lincoln to take a poor man to court for not paying back a small sum of two and a half dollars. The poor man had refused to pay it because he said, he didn't really owe it. Lincoln had an idea. He agreed to take up the case if he was paid ten dollars, cash down. The client readily paid him the cash. Lincoln at once went and gave the other man five dollars and said, "Now go and pay two and a half dollars to that neighbour of yours and take two and a half dollars for yourself." Both Lincoln and the poor man gained some money and the rich client was completely satisfied.

(3) 2702/(Set : A)

Questions :

1 × 6 = 6

- (i) What did the rich man want Lincoln to do ?
- (ii) Why did the poor man refuse to pay the amount ?
- (iii) On what condition did Lincoln agree to take up the case ?
- (iv) What did Lincoln do with the money he got from the rich man ?
- (v) Why was the rich man satisfied ?

Of men's earliest inventions we know very little. The first may have been the use of stone to crack a nut. The next was possibly the use of a stick to strike an enemy. Once man found that stick and stone were useful, it was only a step further to the making of a crude weapon by fastening a stone to the end of a stick. Man used stick and stone long ago before he dared to meddle with fire. Fire, of course, existed; for lightning must sometimes have set the forests ablaze just as it does today; and in those days Volcanoes were much more active than they are now. The forgotten hero who first dared to tame fire, to his own use was the greatest of early inventors, for once man had fire, he was in the post-fire age and he was master of all lower creatures.

Questions :

1 × 6 = 6

- (i) What were man's earliest inventions ?
- (ii) How did man made his first crude weapon ?
- (iii) Was there the existence of fire in early times ? How do you know ?
- (iv) What was the position of Volcanoes in those days ?
- (v) Who was the greatest of all inventors ?

SECTION - D(A : Prose Text)

4. Read the passages given below and answer the questions that follow. Do any two passages :

5 × 2 = 10

- (a) In life every man has twin obligations- obligations to his family, to his parents, to his wife and children; and he has an obligation to his people, his community, his country. In a civil and human society, each man is able to fulfil those obligations according to his own inclinations and abilities. But in a country like South Africa, it was almost impossible for a man of my birth and colour to fulfil both of those obligations. In South Africa a man of colour who attempted to live as a human being was punished and isolated. In South Africa, a man who tried to fulfil his duty to his people was inevitably ripped from his family and his home and was forced to live a life apart, a twilight existence of secrecy and rebellion.

2702/(Set : A)

Questions :

- (i) Name the chapter and its author.
 - (ii) What is every man's first obligation ?
 - (iii) What is every man's second obligation ?

Then, in the black clouds quite near me, I saw another aeroplane. It had no lights on its wings, but I could see it flying next to me through storm. I could see the pilot's face-turned towards me. I was very glad to see another person. He lifted one hand and waved.

"Follow me," he was saying "Follow me."

Questions :

- (i) Name the chapter and the author.
 - (ii) Why was there no answer ?
 - (iii) What was effect of storm ?
 - (iv) What did the pilot lost in storm seen in black clouds ?
 - (v) What did the pilot of another aeroplane do to help the pilot lost in storm ?
- (c) No body knew exactly why Wanda sat in that seat, unless it was because she came all the way from Boggins Heights and her feet were usually caked with dry mud. But no one really thought much about Wanda Petronski, once she sat in the corner of the room.

The time they thought about Wanda was outside of school hours – at noon time when they were coming back from school, or in the morning early before school began, when groups of two or three, or even more, would be talking and laughing on their way to the school yard. Then, sometimes, they waited for Wanda – to have fun with her.

Questions :

- (i) Where did Wanda come from ?
- (ii) What happened after Wanda sat in the corner of the room ?
- (iii) When did classmates think of Wanda ?
- (iv) Why did they wait for Wanda ?

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

Yoga is the ancient Indian system of keeping a person fit in body and mind. It is basically a system of self treatment. According to the Yogic view, diseases, disorders and ailments are the result of some ways of living, bad habits, lack of proper knowledge and unsuitable food. The diseases are thus the resultant state of a short or prolonged malfunctioning of the body system. Since the root cause of a disease lies in the mistakes of the individual, its cure also lies in correcting the mistakes by the same individual.

4. Read the passages given below and answer the questions that follow. Do any two passages :

$$5 \times 2 = 10$$

- (a) Lencho showed not the slightest surprise on seeing the money; such was his confidence – but he became angry when he counted the money. God could not make a mistake, nor could he have denied Lencho what he had requested.

Immediately, Lencho went up to the window to ask for paper and ink. On the public writing table he started to write with much wrinkling of his brow, caused by the effort he had to make to express his ideas. When he finished he went to the window to buy a stamp which he licked and then affixed to the envelope with a blow of the fist.

Questions :

- (i) Why did Lencho not show the slightest surprise on seeing the stamp ?
- (ii) When did he become angry ?
- (iii) Where did Lencho go immediately after to ask for paper and ink ?
- (iv) What did he do on the writing table ?
- (v) Name the chapter and the author.

- (b) It is from these comrades in the struggle that I learned the meaning of courage. Time and again, I have seen men and women risk and give their lives for an idea. I have seen men stand up to attacks and torture without breaking, showing a strength and resilience that defies the imagination. I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it. The brave man is not he who does not feel afraid, but he who conquers that fear.

Questions :

- (i) Name the chapter and its author.
 - (ii) Who taught the author the meaning of courage and where ?
 - (iii) How has men and women behaved for the sake of an idea ?
 - (iv) What is courage ?
 - (v) Who is a brave man according to the author ?
- (c) Sometimes, when Peggy was asking Wanda those questions in that mocking polite voice, Maddie felt embarrassed and studied marbles in the palm of her hand, rolling them around and saying nothing herself. Not that she felt sorry for Wanda, exactly. She would never have paid any attention to Wanda if Peggy hadn't invented the dresses game. But suppose Peggy and all the others started in on her next ? She wasn't as poor as Wanda, perhaps, but she was poor. Of course she would have more sense than to say she had a hundred dresses. Still she would not like for them to begin on her. She wished Peggy would stop teasing Wanda Petronski.

Questions :

- (i) Name the chapter and its author.
- (ii) How did Peggy tease Wanda ?
- (iii) How did Maddie behave when Peggy asked Wanda teasing questions ?
- (iv) Did Maddie feel sorry for Wanda ?
- (v) What was the fear in Maddie's mind ?

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

Ants are the most interesting of all insects because they are so like human beings in many ways. They live in families, build their own houses and have a king and a queen. Each ant has its own work to do, and it does its work in a perfect manner. The very young ants, who have just come out of their cocoons, are generally like nurses. When they are older and their skins are harder, they are ready to leave the nest and do other kinds of work. Some of the ants hunt for food. Most other kinds, go about looking for

(3)

Guru Gobind Singh, the last of ten Sikh Gurus, was a great son of India. He led India to sublime heights of glory. He brought about moral resurgence and created order out of disorderly social condition. He was a multifaceted personality. He was a poet, soldier, statesman, leader and a true socialist – all in one. He put life into the dying social order by giving it a wholly new outlook. He was a practical socialist who founded a social order based on fraternity, equality and love. He welded the weak and divided mass of our countrymen into becoming brave and self reliant people. In him were combined the spiritual vision, unmatched organising capacity, and a gift of politic intuition and insight. Such a rare combination of qualities would inspire the most downtrodden people to look forward to an optimistic future.

2802/(Set : B)

2802/(Set : B)

Questions :

4. Read the passages given below and answer the questions that follow. Do any two passages :

5 × 2 = 10

- (a) The policy of apartheid created a deep and lasting wound in my country and my people.

2702/(Set : C)

All of us will spend many years, if not generations, recovering from that profound hurt. But the decades of oppression and brutality had another unintended, effect, and that was that it produced the Oliver Tambos, the Walter Sisulus, the Chief Luthulis, the Yusuf Dadoos, the Bram Fischers, the Robert Sobukwes of our time – men of such extra ordinary courage, wisdom and generosity that their like may never be known again. Perhaps it requires such depth of oppression to create such heights of character. My country is rich in the minerals and gems that lie beneath the soil, but I have always known that its greatest wealth is its people, finer and truer than the purest diamonds.

Questions :

- (i) What did the policy of apartheid create ?
- (ii) What was the other effect of the decades of oppression ?
- (iii) What does the author say about the great men mentioned in the passage ?

- (iv) What is the greatest wealth of the author's country according to him ?
- (v) Find a word in the passage which means 'racial discrimination on the basis of colour'.
- (b) He stepped slowly out to the brink of the ledge, and standing on one leg with the other leg hidden under his wing, he closed one eye, then the other, and pretended to be falling asleep. Still they took no notice of him. He saw his two brothers and his sister lying on the plateau dozing with their heads sunk into their necks. His father was preening the feathers on his white back. Only his mother was looking at him. She was standing on a little high hump on the plateau, her white breast thrust forward. Now and again, she tore at a piece of fish that lay at her feet and then scrapped each side of her beak on the rock. The sight of the food maddened him. How he loved to tear food that way, scrapping his beak now and again to whet it.

Questions :

- (i) What and how did the seagull pretend ?
 - (ii) What were his two brothers and sister doing ?
 - (iii) What was his father doing ?
 - (iv) What did the seagull love ?
 - (v) Name the chapter and its author.
- (c) Wanda did not have any friends. She came to school alone and went home alone. She always wore a faded blue dress that didn't hang right. It was clean, but it looked as though it had never been ironed properly. She didn't have any friends, but a lot of girls talked to her. Sometimes, they surrounded her in the school yard as she stood watching the little girls play hopscotch on the worn hard ground.

"Wanda", Peggy would say in a most courteous manner as if she were talking to Miss Mason. "Wanda", she'd say, giving one of her friends a nudge, "tell us, how many dresses did you say you had hanging up in your closet ?"

"A hundred," Wanda would say.

"A hundred !" Exclaimed all the little girls incredulously, and the little ones would stop playing hopscotch and listen.

Questions :

- (i) Did Wanda have many friends ? How do you know ?
- (ii) What kind of dress did Wanda wear ?
- (iii) How did Peggy make fun of Wanda ?
- (iv) What was the reaction of little girls after listening Wanda's answer ?
- (v) What was Wanda's answer ?

1. Read the passage given below and answer the questions that follow :

Cheating in examinations is a major defect of our educational system. The cheating has become so common that students consider it their birthright to use unfair means in the examination. The root cause of this evil lies in our schools. Short cuts have replaced hard labour. Guides and notes are encouraged in place of books. In all school exams, except the middle and matric examinations teachers show leniency to the students and pass most of them. Sometimes even the parents are at fault. They get their undeserving wards promoted to higher class. Students don't cultivate the habit of self study and hard work. Then in the board examination students resort to copying. The teachers on duty encourage the students to use unfair means to pass the exam. The desire to show good results motivates them to adopt wrong methods.

Questions :

1 × 6 = 6

- (i) What major defect our educational system has been pointed out in the given passage ?
- (ii) Elaborate the root cause of this evil.
- (iii) How are parents responsible for this evil ?

their own way of expressing themselves. When a rabbit sees an enemy it runs away into its hole. Its tail, which is white, bobs up and down as it runs. The other rabbits see it and they run too. They know that there is a danger. When a cobra is angry, it raises its hood and makes itself look fierce. This warns other animals. When a bee has found some food, it goes back to the hive. It cannot tell the other bees where the food is by speaking to them, but it does a kind of dance in the air. Some animals say things by making sounds. A dog barks when a stranger comes near.

Questions :

1 × 6 = 6

- (i) What is the gift possessed only by man and no other animals ?
- (ii) How do other animals express themselves ?
- (iii) How does a rabbit react when it sees an enemy ?
