SECTION - A(Reading)

- 1) Read the following extract and answer the questions that follow:

Anyway , I was in Holmes's apartment one day when a tall, handsome man dressed in the uniform of a foreign country , came to see him. The man wore a mask and pretended to represent a second person, but Holmes soon recognized the man, addressed him as " Your Majesty," and the fellow then admitted that he was the king of Bohemia. He had come, he said , to ask Sherlock Holmes's help in a matter of great importance . It seems that five years earlier, before he had become king, he had been in Warsaw on a visit and had fallen in love with a beautiful American actress, Miss Irene Adler.

"I was crown prince at the time ", he explained, " And I was young. Shortly after, I became king. Irene Adler was not of royal blood. My family and the members of the government found out about the matter and naturally insisted that I must give Miss Adler up. I loved her deeply, but my first responsibility was, naturally, to my country".

The king went on to explain that he was now about to be married to a princess of one of the neighboring countries and that Irene Adler, who was still apparently in love with him, had said that she was going to write to the princess and tell her all.

"Is it money Miss Adler wants?" asked Holmes.

"Heavens no !" said the king. " She is not that kind of person. She simply insists that she still loves me and she refuses to let me marry someone else".

"I suppose she has some letters of yours, but we can prove that they are false," said Holmes.

"They are written on my own private paper and in my own handwriting. She also has my photograph".

"We can prove that the paper was stolen and that your handwriting was copied. Anyone can buy your photograph".

2) Read the following poem and answer the questions that follow:

Behold her single in the field
 Yon solitary Highland lass!
 Reaping and Singing by herself ;
 Stop here or gently pass!
 Alone she cuts and binds the grain,
 And sings a meloncholy strain;
 O listen ! for the Vale profound
 Is overflowing with the sound.
 Will no one tell me what she sings?
 Perhaps the plaintive numbers flow
 For old, unhappy, far off things,
 And battles long ago:
 Or is it some more humble lay,
 Familiar matter of today?
 Some natural sorrow, loss or pain,
 That has been, and may be again?

- a) What is the Highland girl doing by herself? [1]
 b) 'Stop here or gently pass!' Why does the writer say so? [1]
 c) According to the poet, what may be the theme of the girl's song? [2]
